

2010 and Beyond

“What should be on your business radar?”

Wouldn't it be nice if you knew what was on the horizon for your business or organization for 2010?
Here is your opportunity to hear from an expert panel and ask your questions!

Whether you are a large company, small business owner or a non-profit, the Bedford Area Chamber of Commerce Business & HR Group is offering this beneficial panel discussion in order to better prepare you for 2010. A recent survey of small to mid-sized businesses in the U.S. revealed that nearly 60% expect an economic recovery in 2010, will you be prepared?

Date: Thursday, November 12, 2009

Time: 11:00 - 11:30 AM - Registration
11:30 - 1:30 PM - Seminar

Location: Central Virginia Community College, Bedford Campus

Cost: $15 Chamber Member
$20 Non Chamber Member
Box Lunch Included

Advance registration required by calling the Chamber at 540-586-9401.

Panel guests include the following:

Small Business Representatives:

- Harry Leist – Owner, Olde Liberty Station
- Jody Lyons – Owner, Lyons Team Realtors

Non-Profit Representatives:

- Pam Kestner-Chappelear – President, Council for Community Services
- Marie Martin – President/CEO, United Way of Central Virginia

Large Business & Industry Representatives:

- Alan Kolody – Vice President of Finance, Brooks Food Group
- Jim Wright – Senior Vice President of Human Resources, CommScope

Healthcare Representative:

- Jeanne Armentrout – Vice President of Human Resources, Carilion

Recruiting & Staffing Representative:

- Andrea Sugden – Senior Vice President, Southern Division, Adecco Staffing

Governmental Representatives:

- Kathleen Guzi – County Administrator, Bedford County
- Charlie Kolakowski – City Manager, Bedford

Employment Law Representative

- Paul Klockenbrink, Gentry, Locke, Rakes & Moore

